

Act of Remembrance

The president says

Let us remember before God,
and commend to his safe keeping,
those who have died for their country in war;
those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;
and all who have lived and died in the service of the peoples of the world.

The names of those to be commemorated are read out.

Mary Johnston says

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.

Steve Reed MP says

At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
we will remember them.

All affirm

We will remember them.

The beginning of the two-minute silence is signalled. Silence is kept.

The completion of the silence is signalled. The following prayer is said

Ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples
and establish harmony among the nations,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Wreaths are placed at the War Memorial.

The Kohima Epitaph is said

by Steve Reed MP

When you go home

tell them of us and say,
for your tomorrow
we gave our today.

Act of Commitment

The president says

Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service.

Will you strive for all that makes for peace?

We will.

Will you seek to heal the wounds of war?

We will.

Will you work for a just future for all humanity?

We will.

Merciful God, we offer to you the fears in us
that have not yet been cast out by love:
may we accept the hope you have placed in the hearts of all people,
and live lives of justice, courage and mercy;
through Jesus Christ our risen redeemer. Amen.

The National Anthem

God save our gracious Queen,
long live our noble Queen,
God save the Queen.
Send her victorious,
happy and glorious,
long to reign over us:
God save the Queen.

The Blessing

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

God grant to the living grace, to the departed rest,
to the Church, the Queen, the Commonwealth and all people, unity, peace and concord, and to us and all God's servants,
life everlasting; and the blessing of God almighty,

the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

The Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.
